Dean's Message

Hello AGO friends,

I hope your Holy Week and Easter services, whether virtual or in-person, went well and you are now getting some well-deserved rest. But your AGO chapter is not at rest. We have several events on the horizon that we know you will enjoy. Elizabeth George, AGO National's Director of Member Engagement and Chapter Development, will join us on Saturday, April 17th via zoom for a lunchtime meeting. Elizabeth and Caron Farmer, the Great Lakes Region Councillor, will have a special presentation for our chapter that you won't want to miss. Watch for the zoom link, coming soon to your email inbox and also found elsewhere in this newsletter. Grant Holcomb, our Chapter Secretary and representative to AGO National's Committee for Young Organists, will be playing his senior recital later this month. This will be a virtual performance featuring works by Bach, Gigout, Matthias, Frescobaldi, and others. We will send you more details as they become available so you will be able to tune in and enjoy his performance.

Speaking of young organists, AGO National Council has established the "Year of the Young Organist", beginning July 1 of this year and running through June 30, 2022. During these 12 months, any individual under the age of 30 can become a new member or renew his/her membership for free as part of this program. Do you know of a young organist who isn't an AGO member? This is the perfect time to let him/her know about AGO and encourage membership. Did I mention that it's FREE? Let's all do what we can to welcome younger members into the Guild so they can take advantage of all that AGO has to offer!

Your Executive Committee continues with our planning for in-person programming for next year. We are working on a lineup of educational, social, and performance activities. There should be something of interest for everyone. And won't it be wonderful to be able to be together in person again! In the meantime, Happy Passover, Happy Easter, Happy Spring!

Jane

Gwen T. Frazier, MM, CAGO

Before returning to Lexington in mid-Sept. 2020, Gwen previously held dual AGO memberships in the Northern VA and Lexington chapters, having resided in Northern VA since late 1986. She holds Bachelor/Master degrees in Organ Performance from UK (studied with Schuyler Robinson and Arnold Blackburn) with postgraduate work and has earned the AGO Service Playing/Colleague certificates.

Gwen most recently served as Organist of Cherrydale United Methodist in Arlington, VA from 2009-2020 and prior to that position served as Music Director/Organist of St. Luke's UMC in DC (now joined with Metropolitan Methodist, DC), and Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas, VA and as Interim Organist in several parishes including Pohick Episcopal Church, Emmanuel Lutheran (VA) and Capitol Hill Presbyterian, DC. She has also taught private organ and organ and is also retired from Federal Contracting work. Since retiring from this full-time position, Gwen had returned to teaching private piano and organ teaching and has additionally accompanied vocal students in private studios (VA) and at Northern VA Community College campus (Alexandria, VA). She is also a member of the Organ Historical Society, Hymn Society and the ALCM (Lutheran Musicians). Gwen also previously served at Music Director/Organist at St. Raphael's Episcopal Church in Lexington from 1980-86 prior to moving to VA.

Gwen and her husband Don now reside in Versailles and are delighted to return to horse country, friends and colleagues in the Lexington chapter, and Gwen's home state. Don is also a church musician (pianist/organist), having served several Northern VA Lutheran and Methodist congregations and was a previous active member of the Northern VA and Greater Kansas City AGO Chapters.

by Dr. Ted Gentry, Lexington AGO Chapter Historian

In 1960, the Lexington Chapter celebrated the installation of several new organs in area churches: Central Christian (Holtkamp), Church of the Ascension in Frankfort (Austin), Meadowthorpe Presbyterian (Charles Wood), and Woodland Christian (Reuter). Betsy Steiner played the dedication recital at Woodland Christian in a diverse program on October 11, ranging from Bach's Toccata and Fugue in d minor to Dupré's Variations on a Noel. A month later, the new Holtkamp at Central Christian was dedicated with a recital presented by Robert Baker, organist at Fifth Presbyterian and Temple Emmanuel in New York City. His three-part program began with Handel's first organ concerto and concluded with Jongen's Toccata in D-flat.

In 1961, the AGO doubled annual membership dues from $5 to $10, a decision that generated much discussion at chapter meetings. Several opinions were expressed on how to spend the "windfall" that the chapter would receive since half of the dues would be earmarked for Lexington. Some felt that the five dollars per member would enable the chapter to host guest organists for recitals. Others asserted that the chapter should refund part of the dues to members as a rebate. This last idea was studied by a committee, but it was never implemented. Also in 1961, the chapter once again began investigating the possibility of hosting a regional convention.

At the meeting on September 12, 1961, a new member was introduced to the chapter. Marian Soule, organist at the Christian Science church, was warmly welcomed. Sixty years later, Marian is still an active and highly respected member of our chapter. For 37 years she served faithfully as organist at Southern Hills United Methodist Church.

A Virtual Concert Series for our 75th Anniversary Year

During this time of social isolation many of us are sorely missing live performances. Every month during our 75th Anniversary program year we'll present a set of video links of performances selected according to various themes. To watch the videos click on the underlined blue links.

Because this month we've produced our own video of organ performances for the Easter season, this page is featuring choral performances.

University of Florida Sacred Music Workshop

A message from Laura Ellis, D.M.A., Associate Director & Professor of Music at University of Florida:

I'm excited to announce that the UF Sacred Music Workshop is going virtual for 2021!

While I'm hopeful that many of us will be vaccinated by early May, I know it will be a while before the entire UF campus community is vaccinated. So, rather than bring everyone to campus right now, we'll play it safe and meet virtually! Bonus: it's FREE!

The workshop will be held during our normal timeframe: May 2-4, 2021. The event will include interactive Zoom sessions and a great line-up of presentations. Our primary guest clinician is Jonathan Hehn, Choral Program Director and Organist at Notre Dame who will provide a hymn festival and other workshops. We'll have an organ literature session by R. Monty Bennett, an organ recital by Elena Barquerizo, and much more!

Complete details about the workshop may be found here:

To All AGO Chapter Deans

cc: Chapter Treasurers

The AGO National Council is committed to membership recruitment, retention, and growth within our organization. As more of our members have reached the "Special" membership category (present company included!), we recognize that new initiatives must be developed to attract and welcome younger members into the Guild. We want them to experience the wealth of benefits, professional opportunities, and camaraderie we have enjoyed during our careers.

To this end, we have established the "Year of the Young Organist," July 1, 2021–June 30, 2022. During these 12 months, any individual under the age of 30 can become a new member or renew her/his membership for free as part of this program.

We are writing to ask you and every other chapter dean to embrace this initiative with enthusiasm and support. We will not collect membership dues for young organists, neither the national nor the chapter portion, during the upcoming membership year for those under the age of 30. All will receive full membership benefits, including TAO. New/renewing young organists can take advantage of this offer by visiting AGOHq.org/free-membership.

During the Year of the Young Organist, please make a special effort to welcome young organists, keep them engaged with your chapter, and retain them as members after the free membership year has expired.

Thank you for your time and support of this yearlong initiative. If you have any questions, please reach out to a member of our membership team by phone, 212-870-2310 or email members@agohq.org.
