Dean's Message

Hello AGO Friends,

I hope you have been able to enjoy some of the many programs that have been offered in our area lately. And there are many more to come! Check out the Calendar of Events in this newsletter for some new offerings that you won't want to miss.

Don't forget that our annual Christmas Pipes Members' Recital is coming up on December 11th. We would love to hear you play, so check out the details elsewhere in the newsletter and sign up now!

The year is passing swiftly, and Advent and its attendant busyness is almost upon us. It's easy to be consumed by the myriad rehearsals and performances that inundate musicians at this time of year, so don't forget to give yourself some down time to enjoy the season.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Jane

SIGN UP FOR OUR CHRISTMAS PIPES MEMBERS' RECITAL

Lexington AGO's annual Christmas Pipes Members' Recital is scheduled for Sunday, December 11th, 3:00 pm, at Centenary United Methodist Church, Lexington. Centenary's organist Rob Vanover is excited to welcome us to his church to play the 63-rank Reuter organ. He says it's not that often that he gets to hear the organ from out in the pews!

While you are planning your Advent and Christmas music, see if there's something you would like to share with your fellow members and the local community. We need for seven or eight organists to play, and each participant may have up to 7 minutes each to showcase his/her piece(s).

Then contact Rob (he says texting him is best at 859-333-3743) so that he can schedule practice times and put the program together. We would like to have everything finalized by Friday, December 2nd.

Thanks to Larry Sharp's original idea some years ago, Christmas Pipes has served as a fundraiser for our young organists' scholarship program. We hope you'll want to be a part of the festivities this year!

MEMBER NEWS

Jim Fitzpatrick is home after a stint in the hospital recovering from double pneumonia and Legionnaire's disease. We are glad you are feeling better, Jim!

We wish a speedy recovery to Roy Nance who recently underwent hip replacement surgery.

Lexington Catholic High School music teacher Rob Vanover recently received the University of Chicago Outstanding Educator Award. Each year, newly admitted University of Chicago students have the opportunity to reflect on their time in school and nominate an educator who played a significant role in their education, made a positive impact in their lives, and whose influence has brought them to where they are today. The University of Chicago and Lexington Catholic High School recognize Mr. Vanover's continued excellence in teaching and for being an exceptional role model for all students. Congratulations, Rob!
